Dear friends of Early Childhood,

The Nevada Association for the Education of Young Children (NevAEYC) will be granting scholarships to Early Childhood Educators working with children ages 0-8 years in at-risk, low-income venues to attend the 2010 Nevada Early Childhood Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada, April 16-17 at the Tuscany Suites and Casino.

The scholarship includes conference registration, airfare, hotel accommodations, limited per diem and a membership in the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) for one year.

Recipients will be selected according to a point system and must meet the following requirements:

- A resident of the State of Nevada
- Works with children ages 0-8 years old
- Works in an at-risk, low income environment
- Agrees to attend the conference presentations: "Panel on Homelessness: Collaborating with School Districts and McKinney-Vento Funding to Serve Homeless Children in Early Childhood Programs, featured keynote presentation titled "Tattoos On the Heart: Lessons From the Barrio", and a life size learning classroom session".

For more information about the conference visit our website at www.nevaeyc.org I hope each of you will take advantage of this exciting opportunity. Good luck and I hope to see you at the conference.

Sincerely,

Catherine Lyons
